INTRODUCTION

The John Trotwood Moore Papers, Addition, span the years from 1894 through 1944. This collection is largely correspondence between Mr. John Trotwood Moore and his wife, Mary Daniel Moore. There is additional correspondence relating to other family members such as Elizabeth Brown Daniel, the mother of Mrs. Mary Daniel Moore. Correspondence between Mary Daniel Moore and T. S. Stribling is also represented. Other materials found in this collection include family photographs, notes, gift cards, picture postcards, a notebook, a eulogy and autobiographical sketch pertaining to Elizabeth Brown Daniel, newspaper clippings pertaining to the Cole Younger family, a manuscript of the biography of Alvin York, and Tennessee Historical Committee records. This addition to the John Trotwood Moore Papers is contained in four Hollinger boxes, measuring two cubic feet. These additions to the Moore papers were made by Mrs. Whitford R. Cole, Jr., and Mrs. Joel M. Whitney in 1967 and again in 1987. This collection has been microfilmed and the original documents have been maintained. There are no restrictions on the use of materials in this collection.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The John Trotwood Moore Papers, Addition, spanning the years 1894-1944, is an addition to the John Trotwood Moore Papers that was processed in 1964. This collection contains primarily letters from 1898-1900, from John Trotwood Moore to Mary B. Daniel, prior to their marriage. This addition also includes material of particular interest relating to the Cole Younger brothers. It appears from the donor agreement correspondence that Mrs. Mary Daniel Moore was related to the Cole Younger family, perhaps through marriage. The correspondence folder for Cole and Jim Younger contains 37 items that includes their personal letters, telegrams, and post cards from 1901-1914. Clippings of the Younger brothers include several newspaper obituaries of Cole Younger. The Younger family photographs include a group photograph of Henrietta, Bob, Jim, and Cole Younger, Capt. Thomas Coleman Younger, and a watercolor entitled "Liz Brown and Retta Younger, 1865." Moore family photographs include Mame B. Daniel, Judge John Moore, and "Elmcrest" the birthplace of JTM located in Marion, Alabama. Biographical sketches and genealogical information is included in Register Number 8, John Trotwood Moore Papers.
